

December 11, 1969

Mary M. Ott

Mary M. Ott, 75, Aberdeen, died Sunday afternoon, at Americana Nursing Center. Services were held at 9 a. m., Tuesday, Dec. 9, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Burial was in Nelson, Wis.

Catholic Daughters Rosary was said at 7:30 p. m., Monday and public Rosary 8 p. m., Monday, both at the Huebl Funeral Chapel.

Pallbearers were Orville and Kenneth Ott, both of Verdon; Clifford Ott, Huron; Charles Reinhardt, Aberdeen; and Duane and William Reinhardt, both of Stratford.

Miss Ott was born June 6, 1894, in Nelson, Wis. Her family came to the Stratford area in 1904. Her family later returned to Wisconsin and she lived both in Wisconsin and in Aberdeen and Stratford. From 1925 until 1952 she was employed at the Combs Chocolate Shop and from 1952 to 1956 at the Virginia Cafe. She has been semi-retired and since September of this year has resided at the Americana.

She was a member of Catholic Daughters and Band No. 12 of Sacred Heart Church.

Survivors include a brother, John Ott, Aberdeen; a sister, Mrs. C. F. (Hazel) Reinhardt, Nelson, Wis.; and many nieces and nephews. Her parents and six brothers preceded her in death.